INTRODUCTORY

The eighteenth edition of R. L. Polk & Co's Des Moines City and Valley Junction Directory is herewith presented.

CONTENTS.

Those not familiar with the scope of the information given in the Directory are referred to the General Index and Index to miscellaneous information on page 36.

POPULATION.

The Directory contains 47,983 names. After deducting the names of firms, corporations, institutions, etc., and multiplying by $2\frac{1}{2}$ to allow for names of women and children not represented in its columns—we estimate the population as 107,962, an increase over the last edition of 3,247.

This year, as heretofore, the canvass for information for the Directory has not been confined to the city limits, but embraces the adjacent territory which to all intents and purposes is as much a part of the city as though included in the corporate limits.

OLDEST AND BEST

Des Moines Typographical Union No. 118

THE Typographical Union is not only the oldest and best, but the most progressive trades organization in America. Among the many advantages afforded its members we mention the following:

A home for the sick and disabled.

A weekly pension for those unable through age or physical condition to earn a living.

Weekly benefits to the sick.

Mortuary benefits to families of deceased members.

The Union transacts business under the plan of the initiative and referendum and the Australian ballot.

When you order printing ask that it bear the Union Label, which is a guarantee of good work at no advance in cost.

The presence of the label on your work will please all whose names appear in the list below:
